KNOW NOTHING OF MORTGAGES P. H. Fitzgerald's Estimate of Georgians-He Leaves for His Colony.

P. H. Fitzgerald, author of the Georgia old soldiers' colony scheme, left for Tifton, Ga., yesterday afternoon. There is a midsummer fruit fair in progress at Tifton, under management of the Tiff brothers, who are frequently quoted by the promoters of the colony as an example of what may be done in this region of Georgia by Northern energy and capital. Mr. Fitzgerald said that he would be met at Tifton by a large the Northwest, and that steps would be taken at once to secure deeds under the options that have been obtained by Governor Northen, and which expire in a short time. It is very desirable from the colony's point of view that the options should be taken up before their owners have an idea that a greater profit may be gained by refusing to sign the deeds. When asked yesterday if he were not fearful that some of those who have given options would refuse to sign the deeds in the last moment, Mr. Fitzgerald

"Not in the least. The crackers of that part of Georgia are an honest, simple peo-ple, who have little knowledge of the deceits of the world, and who can be relied upon to keep a bargain. They know nothing of mortgages, and told us that they wanted the cold, hard cash, because they did not want to give us a chance to play any Yankee tricks, but as between themselves, a bargain is a bargain, and simple notes are all the form of indebtedness they care for. In my search of the records of Irwin and Wilcox counties to trace down the abstracts of the lands we are going to buy, I did not find a single mortgage re-They do not ask mortgages of each other, and mortgages appear in the records of the State, as a rule, only when Northern nen are investing in the country, and thus secure one another.

"Our stock bonds," continued Mr. Fitz-gerald, "are about all subscribed for and the books will be closed on July 25, instead of the 10th, as the season is a little inconvenient for the farmer element to pay. A venient for the farmer element to pay. A great many of them have written saying that they are in the midst of harvest, and that they would like to have from twenty to thirty days longer in order that they may sell something before paying the balance on their stock. This privilege has been granted them. The receipts, however, amount to $130,000, and we will begin at once to secure the deeds at the center of the tract and buy from the center out as fast as the money comes in, which will fast as the money comes in, which will be during the rest of the month. Some of the lands cost only $1.75 an acre, while other tracts cost $9.50 an acre, according to the state of improvement. I shall take steps on this trip to have our organization papers perfected, and I think we will be in regular incorporation by Aug. 1. Then we will have a permanent organization, and we will proceed to elect a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer. We will be able to secure at least from 25,000 to 30,000 acres on this trip."

Mr. Fitzgerald said he thought Northen City would be an appropriate name for the new city that is to be created, in honor of the ex-Governor who has done so much for the colony's success.

BIG SLUMP IN WHEAT

SEPTEMBER FUTURES AT CHICAGO TOOK A TUMBLE OF 3 3-8C.

Corn and Outs Weak on Independent News, While All Lines of Provisions Joined in the Decline.

CHICAGO, July 8 .- Wheat went down with a rush to-day. September closed 3%c lower than on Saturday. Heavy shipments of exporting countries, small decrease in the visible and liberal liquidation caused Pineapples—$1@2 per doz.

Oranges—California seedlings, $2.75@3 per box; navels, $3.75. and provisions at declines.

Wheat started weak and even after the weather service bureau had predicted frost to-night in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Nebraska the price, which began to rally, dropped lower than ever. The principal reasons for the ignoring of the Northwestern conditions, which the action of the market at that time suggested, was the heavy quantities of wheat which the other exporting countries continuously pour into the ports of the importing countries, according to a dispatch received early in the day from New York, which gave the quantity shipped during the week at 9,520 bushels, while the weekly requirements of ley, 70,000 bu, a decrease of 64,000. the importing countries are estimated at not to exceed 6,700,000 bushels per week. The exchange to-day was 26 carloads, of which 21 cars were new and of the latter 4 cars were No. 2 red and the remainder No. 3 and No. 4. One of the bearish features which contributed to the weakness which kept increasing all forenoon was the estimate of 100 cars of wheat for to-morrow's receipts here. The new wheat is evidently about to move and without some export business the visible supply is not likely to keep decreasing much longer. The decrease for last week was 1,202,000 bushels instead of over 1,500,000 bushels as had been looked for. The totals visible is now 40, 359,000 bushel compared with 54,114,000 bushels a year ago and 61,819,000 two years ago. The amount of wheat on ocean passage decreased 1,120,000 bushels during the week, but the fact that Russia was reported to have shipped 4,500,000 bushels last week. Argentine nearly 1,000,000 bushels and India conditions out of sight and were of the greatest assistance to the bears. The latter party in the market were encouraged to increase their short lines and the longs were disheartened and sold also. From 71%c, which was realized for a few fives at the start, the price of September had worked down by successive stages to 68%c by about 12:20 o'clock. The clearances from the Atlantic ports and New Orleans were insignificant. nificant since last reported, amounting to only 4,245 bushels of wheat and 13,500 bar-rels of flour. The market toward the end gave no evidence of the existence of the slightest degree of apprehension rgarding the effect of the frost predicted for the Northwest. About twenty minutes from the close the price made another slump, going down to 67% at the time referred to and e.esed at 67%c. The corn market opened weak and to some extent assisted in depressing wheat early in the day. Near the close wheat became the weaker of the two and caused further depression in corn. The continuaimmense crop was, of course, the chief cause of the weakness. Old corn was said to be held in liberal quantity where none was previously supposed to exist. According to one authority there are about a half million bushels of corn held at Memphis. Tenn., which will have to seek a market elsewhere than in the South. The receipts to-day were 170 cars, inclusive of 12 cars from irregular city elevators. After selling as high as 44%@45c near the opening the price worked down near the end to 42%c and closed at 42%c.

Like wheat and corn oats took a big tumble to-day and experienced during that decline a very heavy trade. There was considerable long stuff came out on the market and heavy individual selling of Cudahy of May, Counselman of September and the crowd in general of both delivering. ies. To some extent was the weakness in sympathy with the more important cereals, but the market was not lacking in independence. September ranged 24c to 221/2c, resting at 22%c.

The trade in provisions was light. Early in the day the market was firm, but later it came under the influences of the falling grain markets and prices closed at considerable below the level of Saturday's prices.

The decline in pork amount to 17½c, in lard .10e and in ribs .121/2c. The day's run of hogs was 25,000. Estimates for Tuesday—Wheat, 100 cars; corn. 210; oats, 275; hogs, 18,000 Leading futures ranged as follows:
